

Upper School Dress Code Standard

The CSN dress code encourages students to dress simply and attractively in an effort to maintain a focus on learning. To ensure that students' appearance is appropriate for a school setting, compliance with the school dress code is required.

Consequences for Dress Code Violations

Students in violation of the dress code (as determined by administration) will be sent to the Office of the Dean of Students. At that time they will be asked to either call home for a delivery of clothes OR will be sent to the campus bookstore to purchase (charged to the parents) clothes that conform to the dress code. Students will not be permitted to return to class until they are properly dressed.
